Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request of 30 July 2023, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA). For reference your original enquiry was as follows:

I flew from Luton to Barcelona on 6 August 1974 on Court Line flight OU1029. The aircraft was one of two Tri-stars used by Court Line at that time. Unfortunately I did not keep a record of which of the two aircraft I flew on. Can you help with the registration of the aircraft that operated this flight?

I am currently assisting Diana with info about this holiday for the fiftieth anniversary of ATOL.

Your request has been considered in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). I can confirm that following a review of held information it has been determined that, upon the balance of probability (in part owing to the age), the CAA holds no information within scope of this request.

You may, if you have not already done so, wish to study the following information published on our website which maybe of some interest to you:

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
